

SACKS MORASHA JPS

ADMISSION APPEALS POLICY

This Policy sets out the appeals process against a decision made by Sacks Morasha JPS ("SMJPS") not to offer a place to an applicant for a place at SMJPS.

1. The right to appeal

- 1.1 All applications for a place at SMJPS will be processed and considered in accordance with the SMJPS Admissions Policy.
- 1.2 If you have been unsuccessful in obtaining a place for your child at SMJPS, you have the right to appeal this decision to an independent appeal panel, within 20 school days of receiving notification of this decision.

2. Appeal Process

- 2.1 As SMJPS is a voluntary-aided school, it is its own admissions authority and the Governing Body of SMJPS manages the appeal process.
- 2.2 In order to bring an appeal against a decision not to offer your child a place at SMJPS you must send your appeal, in writing, to the SMJPS office at 31 Stanhope Road, London N12 9DX addressed to the Admissions Governor. Your written appeal must be lodged within 20 school days of the date on which you received notification that your child has not been offered a place. You will need to submit any evidence on which you wish to rely to support your grounds of appeal.
- 2.3 All appeals will be conducted in accordance with the statutory guidance set out in the School Admission Appeals Code 2012 (and any modifications thereto).
- 2.4 Appeals will be conducted in accordance with the timetable set out in the Appendix to this Policy.

This Policy was ratified by the Governing Body of SMJPS in April 2018.

A copy of this Policy and timetable will be placed on the SMJPS's website.

Date of next review: March/April 2019
